

Suydam Cutting Beats Brother on Court—Ouimet Not to Compete in Open Tourney

Court Tennis Battle Decided in Three Sets

Jay Gould, Champion, Who Meets the Winner Tomorrow, Referees Match

C. Suydam Cutting downed his brother Fulton in the final round match of the national amateur court tennis championship tournament which was decided on the courts of the Racquet and Tennis Club yesterday. The feat of Suydam in winning in straight sets by 6-4, 6-1, 6-4, was a complete surprise even to Jay Gould, the champion, who acted as referee. Suydam meets Gould in the challenge round for the title tomorrow afternoon.

The match brought out brilliant playing on the part of both brothers, but the steadiness of Suydam throughout was a salient factor in his victory. He paid particular attention to controlling the ball and varied his attack so often that Fulton was invariably caught out of position for many easy aces. A large number of deuce games added thrills, but in the majority of instances it was Suydam who emerged the victor.

Millionaires Watch Contest
A more representative group of millionaire sportsmen probably never before attended a match of this kind. Scattered among the crowd that sought the best vantage point to follow the match were Devereux Williams, Lawrence Whitney, Clarence C. Pell, W. E. D. Stokes, J. W. Minturn, R. A. Chandler, Payne Whitney, Henry W. Sloane, R. D. Wrenn, Philip Stokes, M. H. Blair, C. C. Cowdin, Rene Le Montague, W. H. Morgan, Stanley Mortimer, Reginald Fincke and John W. Appel.

The victory of Suydam was the second he has scored over his brother in a title match within the last two weeks. In the club tourney recently Fulton tasted defeat in a bitter five-set match that necessitated three hours of grueling play before the victory was known.

In spite of his defeat Fulton made a creditable showing in the fight for points throughout the match. The recapitulation table shows that Suydam collected a total of 103 points to 91 for his brother, with Fulton actually outscoring his brother by one point in the first set. Fulton also showed more accuracy in gaining his winning points, but Fulton outscored his brother in the "chase."

Fulton made his staunchest bid in the first set when he won the opening game. He held his own during the next five games, which found the men tied at 3-3. Fulton captured the seventh game, but at this point Suydam began his terrific driving, and added the next three games to give him the match.

Fulton Fights Gently
Although Suydam succeeded in capturing the second set after seven hands, Fulton put up such a strong defense that three games went to deuce. Fulton began by taking the first game, and succeeded only after long rallies in the second and third games. However, Suydam's playing was not to be denied, for he went through three more games, the seventh three times going to deuce before Suydam succeeded in gathering his necessary points.

The third set taxed the strength of the brothers, for it was featured by long rallies and much volleying, with Fulton shut constantly in the air. Suydam was at his best here, and his swift shots seemed to baffle Suydam. However, Suydam relished the speedier pace, and by outmaneuvering his brother secured a lead of 5 to 3 in games.

Fulton won the next two games with a fine side-wall attack, although it appeared to many as if Suydam was not fearing his best defense. The match ended with the final score, 6-4, 6-1, 6-4. Suydam brought into execution his best shots.

The point table follows:

FIRST SET
C. Suydam Cutting	6	Fulton Cutting	3
SECOND SET
C. Suydam Cutting	2	Fulton Cutting	3
THIRD SET
C. Suydam Cutting	6	Fulton Cutting	3

Paddock Nearly Equals Record for 100 Yards

BERKELEY, Calif., April 10.—The University of California defeated the University of Southern California track team 9 to 31 here today. Charles Paddock, of Southern California, won the 100 and 220 yard dashes easily. It was announced he had equalled the world's record of 9.3 seconds in the 100 yard dash, but a check-up showed that 9.4 seconds was the official time, three stop-watches having timed him at the latter and two at 9.3.

Burke Whips Ole Anderson
NEW ORLEANS, April 10.—Martin Burke, New Orleans heavyweight, making his first ring appearance in five months, gave Ole Anderson, of Seattle, a boxing lesson here, winning the referee's decision in fifteen rounds. Burke weighed 163; Anderson, 155. Burke is matched with Bob Martin for twelve rounds at Akron, Ohio, July 4.

College Ball Nines in Keen Struggle for Championship

Opening Games of Season Indicate That Holy Cross Will Have Difficulty Retaining Laurels Won Last Year; Georgetown Men Off to Good Start

Although the collegiate baseball season has been underway for scarcely more than a week, the fight for the mythical championship honors in the 1926 campaign promises to be a most interesting one. Several formidable contenders for the leading position among the college nines have already appeared on the horizon and several teams have already met with unexpected reverses.

Last season the Holy Cross nine was undoubtedly the best among the eastern colleges. The Worcester aggregation defeated most of the leading college teams and was successful in twenty-one out of twenty-two contests. Its one setback was sustained at the hands of the Fordham University team in an extra inning game. This year, however, Jesse Burkett's charges have recently beaten the Red Sox, one to Georgetown and the other to the New York Aggies.

The loss of Statz and Bowen, who were signed by the Giants, and of Gil, the pitcher, who is now with the Washington Club, has evidently crippled the former champions to a serious extent.

Maroon a Veteran Team
The Fordham nine, which was runner-up to Holy Cross in the first round of the 1919 campaign, seems to be a strong combination and will probably rank among the leaders again this season. The Maroon team is composed almost entirely of veterans and its pitching staff, which was rather weak last year, has been considerably strengthened. In their opening contest, however, the Red Sox, who lost to Georgetown and the other to the New York Aggies, they were shut out by Georgetown. They have defeated Villanova of the strong University of Vermont nine.

The Boston College team, which also had an impressive record for last season, bids fair to equal its past performance. Fitzpatrick, a south-paw, the Hub nine has one of the best pitchers in the collegiate world today. He was a big factor in many of his victories last year and he has already turned in several wins this season.

The Boston collegians defeated Fordham in their opening contest at West Point. Last week however, they were overwhelmingly trounced by Georgetown and Fitzpatrick was driven from the mound under a fusillade of hits.

At the present time Georgetown seems to have one of the strongest teams in the East. The Washington aggregation has already registered its decisive victories over such formidable opponents as Holy Cross, Fordham, Boston College and Yale, but it was recently beaten in a close game by the Cornell nine.

Although Princeton has already suffered defeats at the hands of the University of Vermont and the Navy, the Orange and Black collegians appear to have a strong, aggressive combination. Trimble, the veteran catcher, one of the best backstops in collegiate circles, and the pitching staff, which will probably be stronger than in several years past.

Tigers Should Hit Well
From present indications the strength of the team lies in its hitting ability. Six of the regulars are considered to be good batters. Games with Holy Cross and Swarthmore, which would have put the Tigers to a severe test, had to be cancelled last week because of the poor weather conditions.

The Yale nine has just returned from a rather disastrous Southern trip, on which it lost four out of six contests. Georgetown, Catholic University, North Carolina State College and the University of Virginia experienced little difficulty in defeating the Elis. In these games the New Haven team made less than a dozen hits and scored only two runs.

It is true that they had only three days of outdoor practice before leaving for their annual jaunt, whereas their opponents had been on the diamond for at least a month, and this may account for their poor showing. Coach Lauder expects to make some changes in his line-up this week and he is confident that his charges will give a good account of themselves now that they have returned to their home grounds.

Public School 64, Manhattan, Wins Swimming Title

The result of last year's tournament was reversed when Public School 64, of Manhattan, led Public School 40, of Manhattan, in the fight for the team honors in the elementary schools swimming championships, held in the City College pool yesterday. The winners compiled 20 points, with the boys of No. 40 second, with 7. Public School 62, of Manhattan, pulled down third honors, with 5 points.

Students from Manhattan schools usurped the honors in practically all of the events. In the team honors Public School 44, of the Bronx, was the first of the outsiders to gain a high place, finishing in seventh position with 3 points. More than 600 boys competed in the five events, which necessitated trial heats. No records were broken.

Ability to score places in all of the contests contributed toward the victory of the P. S. 40 boys. They won only two first places, George Squire winning the 20-yard swim for 85-pound boys, while Frank McElroy captured the 80-yard swim for unlimited weight boys. The other individual winners were Harold Florence, Public School 40, who annexed the 40-yard event, and Nathan Hill, Public School 62, winner of the 60-yard swim.
